

Morgan Thomas

College Freshman

845-598-2405

Pomona, NY 10970

morganthomas.edu@gmail.com

www.morganathomas.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Ambitious college student aspiring to become an attorney. Striving to leverage my 4.0 cumulative average and eager to secure a legal internship, with a broader aim to thrive and excel as a professional in the legal field.

EDUCATION

08/2024-05/2028

First-Year College Student

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

- GPA: 4.0
 - Current Classes:
 - Introduction to Psychological Science
 - Psychotherapy and Modern Self
 - Finding Connections: Perspectives on Psychological Development and Mental Illness
 - Elementary Yorùbá
 - Expected Graduation: 2028
-

WORK EXPERIENCE

08/2024 - Current

Reshelving Assistant

Widener Library, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

- Perform 5-20 hours of work weekly
- Work entails ID checking patrons to ensure security; reorganizing books according to both the Old Widener Library System and the Library of Congress System; discharging, pulling, and shelving books for easy patron use

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

09/2024 - Current

Kuumba Singers of Harvard College

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

- 3-hour rehearsals twice a week
- Sing black spiritual songs as a soloist and with the choir during biweekly gigs as well as during winter and spring concerts
- Responsible for providing the historic stoles at every event in which we perform
- Spend five hours a semester creating publications, ranging from social media publications to concert programs, to increase turnout at events and provide attendees with vital event information

09/2024 - Current

Association of Black Harvard Women

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

- First-Year Representative
- Weekly meetings to plan events for the upcoming weeks
- Plan weekly events to celebrate the culture of black women and black gender-marginalized individuals. Events include Annual Black Trans Lives Vigil, Political Pathways with Abby Philip, Purple Table Talk, etc.

Create the newsletter detailing the events of each semester and thanking sponsors, guests, and members for their generosity and attendance

09/2024 - Current

Alberta V. Scott Leadership Academy

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

- Host 90-minute meetings every other weekend
- Act as a mentor to black women and gender-marginalized high school students in the Cambridge-Boston area
- Provide insight on the college application process; host engaging workshops for improving on skills such as public speaking, networking, etc.; hold creative meetings to both appreciate black art forms and create art through means of painting, singing, etc.

08/2024 - 10/2024

Institute of Politics: Politics of Race and Ethnicity

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

- Tuesday meetings at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government
- Explore the intersection between politics, race, and ethnicity
- Listen to the experience of influential politicians and youth speakers within and outside the Harvard community
- Discuss a myriad of topics, such as criminal justice and minority political representation, while engaging with like-minded peers

11/2024 - Current

Harvard Black Pre-Law Association

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

- Network with and learn from the experiences of influential black political trailblazers like Abby Phillip
- Engage in panels discussing different interests of law and effective preparation strategies for applying to law school

VOLUNTEER
EXPERIENCE

Over the past five years, I have completed over 150 hours of community service by raising voters' awareness on my college campus, providing technological assistance at my local library, performing public speaking during school events, helping prepare for school events, working at and donating to food pantries, assisting at community charitable marathon events, engaging with and donating to elderly nuns, and working as a camp counselor over the summer.

SKILLS + INTERESTS

Technical Skills: Microsoft Office, Teams, MacBook

Soft Skills: Excellent Verbal and Written Communication, Public Speaking, Analytical and Critical Thinking, Self-Motivated, Dependable and Responsible, Attentive, Decisive, Collaborative